

A PRIEST-PROPHET

1. In the Bible, there was a man,
His name was Jeremiah.
God was pleased with what he had done,
For with God he was fully one.

Oh he was a priest-prophet:
He was one who contacted God;
Oh! he was a priest-prophet:
He was one who spoke for God.
We all must be like him –
We must be one with God.

2. In his service he was a priest,
Everyday he enjoyed God;
How God felt he did realize,
That was why he could sympathize.
3. As a prophet, he listened well
To ev'ry word that God would speak;
Risky his life while ministering,
Faithfully he kept dispensing.
4. In Your presence we'll spend more time,
That with You we'll be infused.
Lord, this is our heart's deep longing,
You alone we are all seeking.

Oh, to be a priest-prophet!
This is what we all need to be;
Oh, to be a priest prophet
This is what we all must be.
Lord, make us useful ones
For Your economy.
