

THE BLESSINGS OF THE NEW COVENANT

Jer. 31:31-34; Heb. 8:10-12

Tune: #903

1. God made a covenant with man,
That man would gain God is His plan;
We do have such an assurance
That God is our inheritance.
2. This covenant's so outstanding
God's bequests upon us bringing—
Blessings we partake and enjoy;
Oh, what a life of peace and joy!
3. In it the law of life we find,
Which God imparts into our mind;
Then this law spreads in all our hearts
Until He fills our inward parts.
4. This covenant has guaranteed
That God will be our God indeed!
And we will be His people too,
Making us all His children true.
5. We do have this ability
To know God intrinsically;
To His people God will be known,
For in God's life they all have grown.
6. God will be propitious to us:
He's appeased and He made us just.
He'll remember our sins no more—
We'll fear and love Him all the more.
7. Lord, thank You for this covenant,
Of Your will we're not ignorant.
Your blessings now we must apply
To be filled with Your life supply.
