

THE ETERNAL LOVE

Jer. 31:3; 3:1; 4:1a

1. What was it my Lord, that You saw in me
That made You willing to suffer all loss?
What was it my Lord, that You found in me
That would move You to die on the cross
For such a wretch like me?

Chorus:

Oh such a love that You have for me,
Indeed this is such a deep mystery.
The eternal love
so deep and profound—
A love that knows no bounds.
I'm thankful that
You loved me this much.
Lord, I do love You too,
I'm so in love with You.

2. Many times I've been unfaithful to You,
And I always failed again and again.
I went far away, yet You want me back;
All You want is that I be regained
Back to Your loving arms.
3. I did run after so many lovers;
Lord, I do confess, they occupied my heart.
Please forgive me that I once forsook You;
Lord, now I would return back to You
And ne'r will I depart.
